PRESS RELEASE

Top subject experts from Oz are on way to your city, this month

September 8, 2017, New Delhi: Deakin University, Australia, is organising #iWeekDeakin 2017 across 8 cities in the country. The primary objective of #iWeekDeakin 2017 is to profile key areas of studies to meet with the needs of future careers, covering cities like Chandigarh, Hyderabad, Bangalore, Mangalore, Chennai, Pune, Mumbai and Delhi.

The sessions in respective cities will provide information on various courses offered by Deakin University, scholarships and bursaries, career opportunities, enrolment and accommodation process.

“With various new fields evolving like Sports Management, Data Analytics, Advanced Manufacturing etc, education and skills in respective areas will be in huge demand. It is important for aspirants to understand the opportunities that will emerge globally. #iWeekDeakin is meant to facilitate such students with information around relevant programmes, scholarships and bursaries. The courses’ directors will be available on one-on-one basis to interact with the students and parents, which will help them in decision making”, said Ms Ravneet Pawha, Associate Vice President (Global Engagement) & Executive Director and Vice President – South Asia, Deakin University, Australia.

The format of the sessions will include generic presentations on Deakin scholarships, student support, key dates, etc., followed by presentations by senior representatives from the Australian High Commission / AUSTRADE on how international students can benefit from higher studies in Australia.

Interested students can register online for a city near them here - <http://deakinuniversity.in/deakin-i-week/>
