

Honor Life

Monument Maker Launches Innovative Online Designing Tool for Customized Headstones

The process of designing a headstone for your loved one just got easier with Honor Life's new custom online designer.
Vista, California (emeapr.com) June 7, 2017 - Losing a loved one is one of the most trying times in life. It is a time when everything seems to come to a standstill and moving on seems impossible. This situation is not easy, especially as family members feel there is something more they could have done to keep their loved one alive. Choosing a fitting headstone goes a long way in paying tribute to a loved one. This is the reason Honor Life has decided to make this process easier for grieving families.

Headstones and gravemarkers have always been the best way to memorialize a loved one. The monument maker operating out of Vista, California has been in this business for over 30 years. The latest milestone is in line with their mission to provide the highest quality products with the best customer service.

Speaking at the company's headquarters in Vista, a company representative was excited about the new service. "At Honor Life, our goal is to make the process of choosing tombstones or headstone as easy as possible. We know that this is a tough time for families. Our latest innovation provides a hassle-free headstone ordering process," the representative said.

"While product line has increased over the years, we still feel the need to make the process of ordering a monument more approachable. Most people are using the internet to order everything, we believe our new online design tool will make it easier for families to design and order easily and fast," he added.

The Honor Life online custom headstone design tool is a first as the company continues its tradition as a trendsetter in the industry. The software allows customers to choose from a plethora of colors and artwork to design an item that reflects the life of their loved one. The design tool is easy to use and has been hailed as a revolutionary product in the online headstone industry.

Since its launch their product has continued to evolve to meet the changing needs of the clients. Clients can request help in to do the design from the dedicated team of customer service agents.

Honor Life offers free shipping within the continental United States. This makes their products popular across the country. They have caring and knowledgeable staff available to help.

About Honor Life:

Honor Life is a preferred designer and supplier of headstones offered at competitive prices and free shipping. For more details, visit <https://www.honorlife.com/>

Contact Name: R. Willis

Address:
955 Park Center Drive, Vista, CA, United States 92081

Phone: (760) 542-6363

###